Cameron & Melissa

Hello!

First, thank you for considering adoption. We can't pretend to understand your emotions as you weigh your options. If you decide adoption is the best plan for your baby, we would be honored and grateful to be chosen as the adoptive parents. We will provide a loving, welcoming, encouraging, engaging, active, and fun home with a network of support from family and friends that will enable your child to thrive.

We've been together for eleven years and married for over five. We've always wanted children and dreamt of becoming parents, and our infertility experience has led us to the incredible opportunity to begin our adoption journey.

Thank you for considering us, and we wish you and your baby all the best in life.

Cameron and Melissa

about us:

We met in Dallas, Texas in 2013 when we both joined the same coed flag football team. Over time our friendship became a relationship, which eventually brought both of us to the Boston, Massachusetts area when Melissa wanted to move back to her hometown. We married in 2018 and eventually moved to a western suburb with the goal of building the foundation to start a family

Today, we both work at a financial firm based in Boston and live happily with our 10 month old puppy, Knox. We enjoy walking the conservation lands around our neighborhood, playing sports, going to local farmer's markets, traveling, and spending time with our friends and family.

I grew up in the Dallas, Texas area with four older siblings. I played soccer, basketball, and football and continued playing soccer through college at UT-Dallas.

My mom's family is from Atlanta, Georgia and my dad's family is from England. I grew up close with both sides and still am today. We regularly visit them on holidays and birthdays.

In my spare time I still enjoy playing soccer, cooking, traveling, exercise, and reading.

how Melissa thinks of Cameron

Cameron is an amazing husband and partner. We work, play, and laugh together consistently. He never ceases to amaze me and his passion, dedication, and determination in both his everyday life and his career is incredible to see. He is loyal, honest, caring, compassionate, smart, determined, thoughtful, and always looks to help others. His upbringing instilled principles of respect for others, humility, hard work, perseverance, and dedication to helping others, and these traits will serve as the foundation for being an amazing father. He is always there to pick me up if I doubt myself or get discouraged and I know he will do the same for his children. I love him more with each year we're married and I could not imagine a better partner to spend my life and raise a family with.

I was raised in the Boston, Massachusetts area with an older sister. I played soccer, basketball, tennis, and golf growing up, and lived in a tight-knit neighborhood with other children my age. This led to lifelong friendships which remain today.

I have a large family of aunts, uncles, and cousins that live up and down the east coast, and I still spend holidays with them every year. I love to run (and even ran the Marine Corps DC marathon!), fitness/exercise/nutrition, skiing, fashion, traveling to new places, and spoiling my pets as you can see in the picture!

how Cameron thinks of Melissa

Melissa is steadfast, loving, caring, devoted, and family-oriented. She is a social butterfly and can bring any room to life. Her positive attitude in life and her charisma make it impossible not to love her. I could not think of anyone better suited to be a mother and raise a family, and I'm lucky to have her in my life.

In watching her interact with her niece, my nephews, and the numerous pets we've had it's clear that she'll be the most supportive, compassionate, encouraging, and loving mother. She'll serve as a wonderful role model for her family on how to approach life with love, determination, happiness, and laughter.

I am the youngest of five with 3 older sisters and 1 older brother. They all live in the Dallas-Fort Worth area along with my mom. My father passed away unexpectedly when I was 11 but I still keep in touch with his family occasionally who all live in England. My mom grew up in the Atlanta area which is where all of my aunts, uncles, and cousins on her side of the family still live today.

We are a big group of very different personalities, but we spend holidays together and keep in touch via group texts and weekly video chats. They're a crazy bunch but I wouldn't change them for the world!

melissa's family

I have an older sister and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and grandparents. My immediate family is in the Boston area but I have extended family in NYC, Washington DC, and Florida. We get together regularly for holidays, birthdays, and vacations and are a very close-knit group.

My sister is about to have her second baby and there are many other young kids and babies in the family. I can't wait to bring a new baby into our world where they'll have so many friends and family to play with!

our home

We live in a 4 bedroom home which we bought in 2020. We have an open floor plan with plenty of room to play, entertain, cook, eat, and watch TV. Our basement is finished and will serve as a great play area for our family. Our yard is just under an acre of land and it's surrounded by trees. Our neighborhood has many families with small children. We are friendly with all of our neighbors and have close friends on our street. There are also hiking trails and conservation lands around our house, which you can see below. There's plenty to do inside and outside of our home and we love it!

We have many close friends from all over the world. Cameron's best friends were made through his days playing soccer and Melissa's were made through her neighborhood and school. From Boston to Texas to California to Europe, we've built friendships that will last a lifetime.

We love to see new places, whether it's a short trip to Cape Cod or a skiing trip to Switzerland. Meeting new people, learning new cultures, understanding how other parts of the country and world live, and learning from others is fundamental to our lives. We've been all over the U.S., to Greece, Switzerland, South Africa, and we can't wait to share more experiences with our child!

hobbies + interests

Cameron loves to play soccer, snowboard, and cook. Melissa loves to ski and run. We both love to travel and spend time with friends and family!

our promise...

Your child is precious and we don't take lightly your decision to make an adoption plan. We will dedicate our lives to ensuring that they grow up with a loving, positive, and fun home where they can learn and develop the skills they need to be successful in life. We will do everything in our power to ensure they are kind, thoughtful, empathetic, compassionate, caring, and most importantly happy.

Our home will be open, accepting and filled with positivity. Your child will have a life filled with support coming from an incredibly large network of loving family and friends, and will know that they are cherished, special, and deserving of every opportunity they get.

We will respect your decisions about the relationship you wish to have with us and your child. We're open to having an open, semi-open, or closed adoption. We will ensure your child knows about their history and that the decision to adopt was made out of love, both from you and from us. Most importantly, we promise your child will be happy and will be loved unconditionally.

With love, Melissa and Cameron
